Introduction of Outstanding Alumni: Series 1

4th December 2023

Dear Parents/ Guardians,

It is the 55th Anniversary for CLSNP and in the past the School has nurtured a tremendous number of outstanding alumni, which contributed themselves in various aspects. The School would like to introduce three outstanding alumni here, and with their success, to encourage our students to strive their best and shine in the future.

Mr. Sze Shun Sum (1991 Graduate)

After graduating from CLSNP, Mr. Sze pursued his study in Programming at the University of Science and Technology. He then immerses himself in the Information Technology Industry. His concurrent duty area is to provide system support to resolve problem for the industry.

Mr. Sze is currently representing Hong Kong in Bridge game. In the 19th Asian Games, Hangzhou, he won the gold medal in the Bridge Men's Team and becomes pride of Hong Kong.

Mr. Lui Yau Tak, Paul (1999 Graduate)

Mr. Lui Yau Tak was the Chairman of Eastern District Youth Association, and was in the leadership of various NGOs. He dedicates himself in community services, mainly in the elderly and youth sectors. During the COVID he donated materials to charity organizations, and led teams to serve the community, which established a role model for the youth and spread positive message to the society, actualizing the spirit of the School Motto "To serve, Not to be served".

Mr. Lau Chun (1999 Graduate)

Mr. Lau Chun is a prominent chef managing the renowned private home cuisine "Kin's Kitchen", which received One-Star rating in the MICHELIN Guide. Besides managing the restaurant, Mr. Lau is also the host in cookery programme on television, as well as a columnist in various newspaper. He has published the book 《晉情料理：阿晉的美味廚房》(Chun's cuisine: Chun's delicious kitchen), which earns him the reputation of columnist in cuisine.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Lee Kin Lim Larry
Principal
