Notice to Parents No: 2526/103 Newsletter for July to October 2025

International Cultural Campus

Mid-Autumn Moon-Gazing Night

On the evening of October 3, Concordians joined their parents to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival. Students and parents enjoyed exquisite refreshments at ConER Cafe, solved lantern riddles together, and crafted moon lamps. They also had the chance to observe the moon through SeaStar telescopes sharing a wonderful and heartwarming parent-child evening.

Academic Department

1. The Department continues to organize the "Shooting for the Stars" program this year to offer valuable guidance and resources to our senior forms 5 and 6 students and help them excel in the HKDSE.
2. BYOD policy officially started in September. All S1-4 students should bring their own device back to school for learning activities. All devices should be protected by a case which is labelled and stamped. For students in other form, only registered and labelled devices may be brought onto campus for learning purposes.
3. To encourage our students to have positive attitude in learning, the department has provided reminders and advice to students regarding their unsatisfactory learning attitudes. If the situation continues, they will be required to stay in school to revise after the examination, to revise and develop positive learning habits.

Spiritual Nurture Department

Theme verse: "I can do all this through him who gives me strength." (Philippians 4:13) NIV

3. Training sessions for class monitors and monitresses were conducted on 17th September and 13th October respectively. Through the sessions, class monitors and monitresses' understanding on their responsibilities could be achieved and clear goals could be set for this academic year.

Guidance Department

1. Homeroom management – setting goals and classroom regulations
To help classes excel in the new school year and build up bonding, each form had participated in homeroom management activity organized by the school social worker in September and October. Students are encouraged to set clear personal goals and classroom regulations led by their homeroom teachers.
2. Healthy School Programme
To enhance the anti-drug awareness and boost the positive energy, our school has joined the Healthy School Program organized by the Beat Drugs Funds. A briefing session was held in October for Concordians.
3. On 6th Sep, the school social workers conducted a 'survey on mental well-beings' to all S1 to S6 students.
4. On 10th Oct, Concordians had joined a lunchtime activity called 'Culture Awakening'. Through enjoying booth games, food, costumes, music and art work, participants have learnt about cultural diversity, enriching the campus with stronger international color.
5. On Oct 28th, cheering up activity was held for S6 students, hoping that they can face the public exam with courage and overcome challenges without fear.
6. In addition to guidance assistants, team from 'AIM' of JC A-Connect are invited to support SEN students. Individual assessments, case meetings, group training and other services etc., if needed, will be provided.
7. Ms. Karen, Tong Kar Man, the Lutheran school-based Educational Psychologist, will provide psychological service for our students this year. For more information, please contact Rev. Cheung, SENCO of our school.
8. Ms. Suki Cheung, the clinical psychology will visit school regularly to better support our students. To make an appointment, please contact Ms. Wong Chuk Kwan, the Guidance Mistress, or Mr. Poon Wai Kit or Ms. Cheung Sze Wai, the Social Workers of our school.

National Education and Values Education Department (NVE)

National Education

1. The flag raising ceremony was held in the School Opening Ceremony and on 29th September this year. It was also regularly held during the morning assembly weekly. The flag raising team marched solemnly in the hall. The ceremony came to a satisfactory close when the national anthem was played to the end. This ceremony not only raises teachers and students' awareness of civic consciousness, but more importantly, it enhances our sense of national identity.
2. In order to deepen teachers' and students' understanding in national policy development and the roles and responsibilities of Hong Kong in view of the development of China, a two-week morning reading sessions focusing on civic and national education was co-organized by NVE and Library in early October. Students were encouraged to read books about our home country. Most students showed enthusiasm in reading books of the related themes suggested and conducted the book sharing in the class.
3. NVE Department cooperates with Citizenship and Social Development/ Citizenship, Economics and Society Subject to encourage students taking part in "The 8th Bauhinia Cup Hong Kong Primary and Secondary School Students' Chinese History and Culture Knowledge Competition". Our department was responsible for the administrative work. All elite Chinese speaking students were guided to complete the online competition under the lead of subject teachers. This online competition not only enhances students' knowledge about different aspects of Hong Kong and China, but it also provides a fun way to know more about our country.
4. To enhance students' understanding on China, teachers in our team and student representatives had several sharing regarding National Education, which was held in the morning assembly on 12th, 19th, and 26th Sep 2025.
5. To increase students' understanding on national development and national security, the NVE and various subject groups will share on different national development issues and national security areas in "Speech Under the National Flag" sessions during the morning assembly.
6. To enable national security education to continuously take roots in schools, enhance students' understanding of the Constitution, the Basic Law and the Hong Kong National Security Law and raise their awareness of safeguarding national security as well as tie in with the Constitution Day on 4th Dec and the National Security Education Day on 15th Apr, national education and value education department invites students to participate in the "Territory-wide Inter-school National Security Knowledge Challenge" jointly organized by the Department of Justice, the EDB, the Security Bureau and Hong Kong Shine Tak Foundation. This activity is for the participation of students across the territory to create the atmosphere of safeguarding national security and synergize efforts towards safeguarding national security.
7. In order to increase students' understanding of China's national development and celebrate "The 80th anniversary of the victory in the War of Resistance against Japan", teachers from National Education and Value Education Department and Citizenship and Social Development/ Citizenship, Economics and Society Subject work together on News Quiz (The 80th anniversary of the victory in the War of Resistance against Japan) and invite all students in the school to participate.
8. In order to increase students' understanding of China's national development, celebrate the National Day, and pay attention to national sports development and achievements, teachers from National Education and Value Education Department and Citizenship and Social Development/ Citizenship, Economics and Society Subject work together on National Day Q&A Competition (The 15th National Games) and invite all students in the school to participate.

Environmental Education

1. In order to raise students' awareness on school campus cleanliness and to promote the ideas of green environment, two Environment Protection Leaders shared tips about keeping the school clean in the morning assembly on 25th Sep 2025. Keeping the school campus clean is the duty of every member of the school instead of sole responsibility of the janitors.
2. In order to promote the concept of sustainable development and let students understand how to recycle waste more effectively and understand the concept of "Waste-to-energy", the National Education and Value Education Department participated in the upcycling workshop organized by "GREEN@WAN CHAI" at the school. All Form 2 students are invited to participate, and their finished products will be placed in the school's Recycling Centre for decoration.
3. National Education and Value Education Department hold a "Food Conservation and Waste Reduction" session in the OLE lesson on 22nd Oct 2025. The aim is to promote the concept of sustainable development, increase students' awareness of environmental conservation, and become global citizens with an international perspective.

Other activities related to Values Education

1. A reflection on life events was conducted in the first semester with the joint effort of NVE Department and the Chinese Department. Chinese teachers chose topics which are related to students' daily life for discussion. The reflection which involves critical thinking and reasoning skills is conducive to enhancing students' sense of responsibility and understanding their roles in society. The outstanding pieces of work will be posted to the NVE bulletin board on the 5th floor.
2. Our department coordinates the personal goals and classroom rules setting session this year. The activity was held during the OLE period in September. Under the guidance of the homeroom teachers, the class rules and class emblem proposed were thoroughly discussed. Students comply with the classroom rules suggested by their own classes. It is expected that a harmonious learning atmosphere can be enhanced at school.
3. Classroom cleanliness competition has commenced since 8th Sep. Students in each class are in charge of their own class' tidiness and cleanliness. On-duty teachers and prefects of the respective floors rate cleanliness of each class. The weekly cleanliness scores are included as a proportion in the "Quality Class Competition". The classroom cleanliness scores can act as reference or indicators for homeroom teachers discussing cleanliness strategies with their own classes. Our department evaluates the overall classroom cleanliness performances each term in the morning assembly.
4. The morning sharing session has started in September. The morning assembly on Monday is reserved for morning devotion and Chinese cultural sharing. The Thursday sessions are reserved for book sharing or teachers' experience sharing as well as sharing or promotion from different groups. The morning assembly sessions are informative and educational. They are conducive to helping students understand local and world issues with a view to enhancing personal growth.
